Horlander look over one of Company E's new bridge trucks, which will accompany the local National Guard unit to summer camp soon. The truck cost $34,000, and is nine-and-a-half feet wide, requiring a special permit to drive it on the highway. It is used to carry bridge construction equipment.

Sixty Torrance Guardsmen Will Attend Summer Camp

Sixty officers and enlisted men from the Torrance Company E, California National Guard, will take off their civies and put on their uniforms for two weeks, starting Friday, Aug. 12.

At that time, they will leave by convoy for two weeks summer field training at Camp Roberts, Calif. While attending camp, the men will live like regular GIs in the Army, which will be a new experience for the newer recruits.

Under the command of Capt. Douglas J. "Dutch" Horlander, the National Guardsmen will roll out of Torrance by truck

Incredible Gain Claimed By Twin Pontiac Twins

ROBERT GREENWALD RICHARD GREENWALD

Sales of Pontiac automobiles in the South Bay and Torrance area hit a new all time high for the month of July.

"We have increased Pontiac sales in our area 350% over the average monthly sales of our predecessor, Hohman & Hadenfeldt, Inc." Richard and Robert Greenwald, twin brothers, who organized Twin Pontiac barely three months ago, today told the editors of the Torrance HERALD.

"By putting owners in Pontiacs for less cost than the price of a Ford, Chevrolet, or Plymouth, we were able to set this unprecedented sales record," the twins explained.

"Our next goal is to actually outsell in volume the nearby Ford and Chevrolet dealers—and we'll do it," predicted the Pontiac Twins.

"We'll do it with lower prices, higher allowances—and the best possible after-service." Twin Pontiac's block of complete service is located at 505 Pacific Coast Highway in Hermosa Beach.

Playgrounds to Present Summer Circus Saturday

Circus wagons will be rolling into Torrance Park early Saturday morning to set up tents for the Torrance Recreation Department's second annual circus.

All concessions will be open in the afternoon with a big tent to introduce the greatest variety of acts and thrills put on by the boys and girls of the various playgrounds.

Lou Bereskin, dressed in high hat, cane, and bright red riding habit, will emcee a gala affair. There will be 11 of the finest acts ever to be introduced this side of the blue Pacific, recreation leaders claim. Concessions will include a milk bottle game, balloon bustin, fish bowl, guessing game, and many more. Pop and popcorn for the children and pie and hot coffee for the adults will be on the grounds. Tickets for the concessions will be sold at the ticket booth. The main show, which will be at 8 p.m., is free.

Pvt. Ballinger at Fort Knox Center
Pvt. Melvin H. Ballinger, Jr., 13, whose father lives at 17234 Ardath Ave., recently completed ten weeks of advance training at the Armored Replacement Training Center, Fort Knox, Ky.

Private Ballinger was trained under the new packet platoon system. Present plans call for him to be a permanent member of his training tank crew during his tour of duty in the Army.

He entered the Army last February and completed basic training at Fort Ord, Calif.
